

Hello, fam! We are about to embark on a journey. This time around, we will be visiting Cyberjaya!

Believe it or not, there are so many things to discover in Silicon Valley of Malaysia. That's right, it is more than just a town that is housing several universities. With that said, here are the 10 Legit Fun Things To Do In Cyberjaya & Putrajaya including a 24 hours bookstore, and a paintball park!

10 Legit Fun Things To Do In Cyberjaya & Putrajaya

1. Shop for discounted books in the wee hours

It is time to ditch online shopping and head down to BookXcess, located at Tamarind Square. The 24 hours bookstore is super big – we are talking about 37,000 square feet! That's a lot of books, and all of 'em are heavily discounted, all day every day. Its wide collection includes fiction, non-fiction, and children's books. Journals and stationeries can be found here too! Oh, did we mention that there's an in-house cafe too? Books and coffee sound like the best combination. Happy reading, guys!

9. See the Instagram-worthy bridges

Believe it or not, the bridges in Putrajaya are very Instagram-worthy. In fact, people travel near and far just to take photographs of them. Our personal favourite is Seri Wawasan Bridge! The modern design combines cables and steels together. At night time, there are even changing lights. Super colourful! Some other bridges you need to check out include Seri Perdana Bridge, Seri Saujana Bridge, Seri Gemilang Bridge, and Putra Bridge.

Address: Seri Wawasan Bridge, Lebu Wawasan, Presint 2, 62100 Putrajaya, Wilayah Persekutuan Putrajaya

10. Check out Malaysia's national monument

Have you seen it? It is a beauty! Inspired by Washington Monument located in the United States, the Millennium Monument is 68 meters tall! As it is a public space, it is open for 24 hours. Yup, you can see it at 2:00 a.m. in the morning if you want to. Visitors mentioned that it is a good place for a short walk, snap some photographs, and even a picnic. Oh, you can learn one or two things about our history as well!

Address: Lebu Wawasan, Presint 2, 62100 Putrajaya, Wilayah Persekutuan Putrajaya
